No. 1527.

LATIN SPEECH which his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury pronounced at the Espousals of Princess Mary to Frederick Prince of Hesse.

IS, quibus privatorum hominum Nuptiis, vel Sponsalibus, datur interesse, haud quidquam prius est, vel solennius, quam ut Sponsi Sponsaque Indole, Moribus toto denique ante Vitæ Decursu, persensis, eorum futura Feicitatis Omnia capient. Hæc Parentibus, hæc amicis gratulantur; hæc aliis passim prædicant.

Quem morem, si alii unquam, hoc certe tempore, atque hoc loco, sequendum monent, suadente, cum egregie magnanimi Juvenis, quas fando accepimus, virtutes, cum spectata Regiae Virginis Modestia, insignis morum Probitas, ac mite illud ingenium, quod suspicimus, quod miramur, quod enim aliis admodum paucis commune est.

Quæ vero, quanta felicitas est, quam ex his summi Virtutibus sperare non licet? De Corporis sum Dotibus tacemus, quarquam hæc quoque eximunt, et omnium oculos in se trahant. Majora nos vocant; quæ ad veræ Religionis tutamen, publicæ Libertatis defensionem, nec hujus tantum Regni, sed Hassiacæ ditionis, sed universæ etiam Europæ utilitatem atque salutem spectant; quibus omnibus, per hæc sponsalis, quoad humanum ingenium assenti potuit, sapienter admodum, ac perinde felicitè sic enim augurari licet! provisum est.

Vobis igitur, qui lasti hic aderitis, omib[us], reliquisque concilivis nostris, quibus nolentibus atque invitis à solenni hoc Conventu abesse contigit, de prosperis tantarum rerum principiis, verè atque ex animo, gratulamur quibus pacem etiam exitum, faciente Deo, non desurum confidimus.

Tibi vero, Regum optime ac maxime, Patriæ nostra Pater, Decus atque Columna, gratias, quas effusimus, maximas habemus, agimusque, quod nihil humile sentiens, nihil à tanto illo fastigio alienum, ad quod Te rerum omnium Arbiter, nobis immè benevolus, erexit, nostræ saluti semper invigiles, nec, vel in privata tua Domo (siquid primum dicere licet, quod talis tantique Regis interclusus) agi quicquam, aut suscipi patiaris, nisi quod publicæ etiam Utilitati inserviat. Deum igitur, Celi Terræ Conditorem, ardentissimè precamur, Te nobis, Domine, diutissimè servet incolument; Regie Tua Familia universæ semper adsit propius; ac Vota vestra omnia, hodierna præcipue, secundet.

Quò, denique, in hoc tanto illustrium Virorum ac Seminarum Choro, nemo sit, qui nobiscum non compreccetur, vernaculo nostro sermone utentes,

The TRANSLATION, Humbly submitted to the most Reverend and most Learned AUTHOR AND ORATOR.

AT the Marriages or Espousals of Private Persons there is scarce any thing more regarded, or usual, than for those who have the Favour of being present, to form Conjectures of the future Happiness of the Bridegroom and Bride, from a due Consideration of their Tempers, Manners, and past Course of Life; and upon such Conjectures they not only congratulate with their Kindred and Friends, but they publish them to others abroad:

Which Custom, if ever there was a Reason for it anywhere, we are surely both admonish'd and persuad'd to follow at this Time and in this Place, not only by the eminent Virtues of the magnanimous Youth whereof we have heard by Fame, but by that Modesty so conspicuous in the Behaviour of the Royal Virgin, by her remarkable Probity, and by that sweet Temper of hers which captivates our Love and Admiration, and in which very few equal her.

What Happiness therefore may we not expect from these Virtues of the Mind? As to the Advantages of her Person, tho' these also are excellent, and attract the Eyes of all, we say nothing, Matters of greater Importance call for our Attention; such as regard the Protection of the true Religion, the Defence of Publick Liberty, and the Benefit and Safety not only of this Kingdom or of the Dominion of Hesse, but even of all EUROPE; for every one of which the wisest, and (we may venture to foretell) the happiest Provision is made by these Espousals that could possibly be obtain'd by human Wisdom.

With all you therefore who have the Pleasure of being here present, and the rest of our Fellow-subjects who sorely regret their Absence from this solemn Assembly, we truly and heartily congratulate on the prosperous Beginning of such a weighty Affair, in Confidence that by the Blessing of God it will not fail of as happy an Issue.

But to YOU, O King! of Monarchs the best and greatest, of our Country the Father, Glory and Pillar, with the most grateful Hearts we render Thanks, that, without thinking it a Diminution, or foreign to that high Dignity to which, the Disposer of all things has, in his great Goodness to us, advanced your Majesty, you are always watching diligently for our Safety, and that even in your private Family (if it may be allow'd to call any thing private which concerns such and so great a King) you don't suffer one thing to be done or undertaken but what may also tend to the Good of the Publick. Therefore to God the Creator of Heaven and Earth we most ardently pray, that he will very long preserve you, Sir, in Safety for our Sakes; that he may be ever propitious to all your Royal Family, and crown all your Wishes, especially those of his Day, with Success.

And lastly, to the end that in this so Grand a Choir of Illustrious Persons of both Sexes every one may offer their joint Supplications in our Mother Tongue,

Let us pray,

Hat God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost, Three Persons and One God, would bless these Espousals; that he would make them prosperous to his Church, to these Kingdoms, and to the Opinions of Hesse; and that he would direct them to the temporal and eternal Welfare of the two illustrious Sons now espoused and engaged to each other. Amen.

After which an Anthem was sung. And a proper Urn, attesting the Performance of the Ceremony, was sign'd by the following Persons, in the presence of Dr. Paul and Mr. Greenly, Notaries Public who attested the same.

London.

The last Mail from France brought nothing more material, than that the Grand Master of Malta, by Advice of his Council, has banish'd 6 Knights of his Order from that Island, and forbid them from eve^r returning to it more, because they were of the Society of Free-Masons.

By a Mail which arriv'd Yesterday from Holland there's Advice from Constantinople, that the Ambassador from the Porte is set out for Vienna with a Retinue of no less than 500 Persons; and that the Troops particularly the Janisaries will discover a great Distress at the late Peace with the Christian Powers, tho' several have been executed for exciting the others to revolt. The Emperor's Ambassador will carry to Constantinople a Retinue of above 600 Persons.

The Letters of the 26th ult. N. S. from Petersburg say, that 30 Men of War are gertting ready at Cronstadt to put to Sea under the Command of the Admiral de Wilster, and that 8 Regiments are marching thither to be embark'd on board 140 Galleys that ate station'd there for that Purpose.

Those of the 30th from Rome say, that the Sacred College, in order to maintain the Neutrality of the Ecclesiastical State, have decreed that the English Ship carry'd into Civita Vecchia by a Spanish Privateer is not good Prize, and shall be immediately set at Liberty.

The Letters of the 4th Inst. N. S. from Copenhagen say, that the Embarkation of the Danish Forces for Ireland is defer'd.

Those of the ad O. S. from Hanover say, that in all Probability his Britannick Majesty will have an Interview with the K. of Denmark, who is expected forthwith in Holstein and is to repair to some Place on the Frontier that is to be fix'd for the said Interview.

A Letter of the 26th ult. N. S. from Madrid says, that the Governor of Porto Bello is expected in Spain, where he will be prosecuted by the Court for the bad Defence he made of that Place, there being a heavy Charge against him in several Accounts sent from America; and that 'tis not doubted but Admiral Vernon had a Correspondence in that Place, the same having been confirm'd by the Escape of some Inhabitants from Porto Bello who corresponded with him. They say that the Governor had amass'd so much Wealth, that the Fear of losing it made him so ready to capitulate. This Letter adds, that the Spanish Court has order'd a strict Search to be made for apprehending all the Free Masons in the Kingdom.

The most Fam'd and long Experienced Chymical Remedy for ASTHMA's and CONSUMPTIONS, That have been Sold so many Years, and with such success and Benefit to the Publick, by Mr. Parry and his Predecessors, in Boar's-Head-Court, Fleet-street; and, since Mr. Parry's Death, by his Son and Fill are sold only by Mr. Read for 3s. 6d. Vial, at his House in White-Fryars. (N. B. They are in fact by the Sun Tavern in Fleet-street, and the great Corner House in White-Fryars; JAMES READ, in great Letters, is wrote over the Door.) They are a most Incomparable and never-failing Remedy for the immediate Relief and perfect Cure of confirmed ASTHMA of the longest standing: And of all Sorts of CONSUMPTIONS, even for advanced, as not to be cured by any other Remedy in the World.

FOR their Virtues vastly exceed Thing that ever was published, or even known in the whole World, in the Cure of the worst Asthma's and Consumption's.

They instantly relieve the Patient in the most sudden Fit of an Asthma, and make a perfect Cure in a very short Time; for they gently open the Breast, and immediately Liberty of Breathing, without danger of taking Cold; admirably allay the Tickling, which provokes frequent Coughing, and take off the uneasy Sensation of acrimony in the Lungs, cleanse the final Glands, relax the Fibres, and enlarge the Capacities of the Vessels; thus they quickly cure the most obstinate Asthma of the longest standing.

They speedily and effectually cure all Sorts of Consumption's, Ulcers of the Lungs, &c. removing all Obstruction in the Breast, and Lungs, Hoarseness, Wheezing, Soreness of Breath, and all the usual Symptoms which attend the Beginnings of a Consumption; and, if taken in time, will probably prevent one when feared. They are also curative and strengthening to Persons of weakly Constitution, and have no other sensible Operation than as mentioned.

And by Parity of Reasoning this most excellent Medicine (and well known to be) the most sovereign Remedy in the World for those troublesome spending Coughs, which are severally troubled with Night and Morning; and also Chin-Cough, and Hooping-Cough in Children, having Thousands; is so agreeable, and so few Drops to a Dose, Children take them with Pleasure, and without any finement.

In short, these unparalleled Chymical Drops are the infallible Remedy that ever was known (and therefore the faint Efforts of all Counterfeitors or Imitators) Ailments above-mentioned, and allowed to be so by the Judicious amongst the Learned in Physick; and confirm the largest Experience in private Practice, and agreeable for Common Good.
